

Taylor Lamb

Associate, Business Group

tlamb@boyarmiller.com

Taylor Lamb joined BoyarMiller's Business Group in October 2016. Her practice consists of various corporate and real estate matters including entity formation, corporate governance, acquisition and leasing.

Prior to joining BoyarMiller, Taylor was an associate at a mid-sized firm in Houston. After law school, she worked at the White House Office of Cabinet Affairs coordinating policy and logistics between the White House and the Cabinet. At UCLA's School of Law, Taylor served as an Articles Editor for the Journal of Law and Technology and was the co-chair of the Homelessness Prevention Clinic.

EDUCATION

- JD, University of California Los Angeles School of Law
- BA, University of Oklahoma (with distinction)

AFFILIATIONS

- Houston Bar Association, Mergers & Acquisitions Section
- Houston Lawyer Referral Service, Board Member
- Association of Women Attorneys, Member

RELEVANT REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

PUBLIC & PUBLIC/PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP PROJECTS

- Represented a developer in a collaborative partnership with Texas A&M University, among others, in connection with the pre-leasing of an approximately 60 acre multi-phase mixed-use project in College Station, which, once complete, will include two full-service hotels, office, retail, restaurants, entertainment, loft apartments and more.

REAL ESTATE

- Represented various landlords and real estate developers in the negotiation of office and retail leases with national chains and local tenants.
- Preparation of condominium declaration and related governance documents for condominium project in City of Frisco, Texas.