

Corinne Sullins Associate, Business Group

csullins@boyarmiller.com

Corinne Sullins joined BoyarMiller's Business Group in September 2016 after participating in the firm's Summer Associate program in 2015. Her practice consists of representing domestic and foreign entities and individuals in a broad range of corporate matters, including complex merger and acquisition transactions, corporate formation and restructuring, corporate governance, real estate transactions, contract negotiation and other general business matters.

While attending the University of Texas School of Law, Corinne was proud to represent children involved in cases of abuse or neglect as an Attorney Ad Litem through the UT Children's Rights Clinic. She was a member of the University of Texas Interscholastic Mock Trial Sparring Team and a staff editor of the Texas Review of Sports and Entertainment Law. She also clerked for the Texas House of Representatives Natural Resources Committee. In her final year, she was privileged to study International Law and Business at the University of St. Gallen in Switzerland.

Corinne is focused on dedicated service to clients and developing strong relationships with clients and members of her community. She is passionate about becoming an excellent lawyer, giving back to her beloved home state of Texas, and Aggie football.
